1. No prior experience is needed.
2. There are no restrictions.
3. Applicant must also submit a short (200 words or less) essay on their interest in composites.

CAE Aircraft Maintenance Training Scholarship

CAE SimuFlite will award a maintenance initial training scholarship. The scholarship is designed for technicians who have minimal experience working on the aircraft type. The course is designed to give maintenance technicians the type specific technical knowledge they need to maintain aircraft in a safe and cost effective manner. The recipient is responsible for all housing and travel costs to CAE Aviation Training Center, Dallas. The course is 10 days, including 60 hours of instruction.

Requirements: All AWAM Scholarship Application requirements, plus:

1. Transcript showing latest grade point average and graduation date (if applicant is an alumnus).
2. Resume.
3. 250 word essay on your interest in aviation and how this course will enhance your career
4. Recipient of scholarship must be able to attend course in June, July, or August of 2012; and will train in a "crew setting" with another scholarship recipient.

American Eurocopter Maintenance Scholarship

American Eurocopter began operating in 1969 and has become a leading provider of helicopters for U.S. Civilian, Law Enforcement, Military, Homeland Defense, and other markets with more than 1,800 American Eurocopter rotary-wing aircraft flown by more than 600 operators. American Eurocopter provides in-house maintenance training courses that teach technicians how to maintain their Eurocopter Helicopter for intermediate inspections in accordance with the maintenance manual as well as teaching a thorough understanding of the skills and requirements needed to evaluate aircraft performance following maintenance actions. These courses provide first-hand shop work experience through on-the-job exercises. This scholarship consists of a seat in a Eurocopter Airframe Field Maintenance Course of your choice (listed at www.eurocoptersusa.com/training/maintenance.asp). Transportation to and from the training facility and hotel accommodations are the responsibilities of the recipient.

Requirements: All AWAM Scholarship Application Requirements, plus applicant must possess an A&P License.

Aviation Student Entrepreneur Scholarship

This scholarship is given by the Editor-in-Chief of Aviation Entrepreneur Magazine, Richard Peri. Aviation Entrepreneur Magazine represents "more than flight" by providing essential business information to help all aviation entrepreneurs start and operate a successful aviation business. This company wants to help out an aviation student entrepreneur by presenting him/her with this scholarship consisting of a $500 cash award.

1. Applicant must be an A&P or Avionics Student at an Aviation Technical school in the USA
2. Applicant must submit a short essay listing her entrepreneurial goals
3. Applicant must be located in the USA.

FlightSafety International's "Principles of Troubleshooting"

FlightSafety will donate a scholarship for their very popular "Principles of Troubleshooting Course", used by major airlines, military, schools, and colleges. Designed to provide the technician with a logical approach to solving aircraft problems, this course includes individual hands-on practice utilizing simulated aircraft system malfunctions. The five-day, 4 hours per day, on-line course features synchronous, real-time instructor/student interaction and uses the same high quality courseware as FlightSafety Learning Centers. Even the final exam is administered and graded on-line. From a learning perspective, this course is just as good as being in a classroom but does not require travel.

Requirements: All AWAM Scholarship Application requirements, plus:

1. The applicant must be female.
2. Must have finished at least the first year of A&P training.
3. Applicant must submit a short (200 words or less) essay defining how this course will enhance her career.

Association for Women in Aviation Maintenance

AWAM 2012 Awards

Sponsored by Aircraft Technical Publishers for the 15th Year

AWAM is pleased to accept nominations for its 2012 awards. Nominees must have demonstrated, among other qualities, their commitment to community and/or campus service, leadership, responsibility, and professionalism. Self-nomination is an option. AWAM members, please take a moment to honor those who might otherwise not be recognized.

 The Mary Ann Eiff - Teacher of the Year Award ***

Named after first-year recipient Mary Ann Eiff, the goal of this award is to honor the aircraft maintenance teacher who has inspired others. This individual can be a woman or a man. It is someone who supports and respects women students and their potential role in the future of aviation technology. Certainly there is someone you know who has inspired you!

 Student of the Year Award ***

Honoring a deserving, hardworking student with a great attitude, the recipient must have been a student (maybe yourself) during the year 2011. Remember, this is the kind of award that will shine on a resume long after the prizes are gone.

 Beyond All Odds Award ***

This award recognizes inspiring individuals who have been devoted to the maintenance field and have had the courage to make their dreams come true. This award honors an individual who has become successful, despite enormous challenges. Take a moment of your time to recognize that person you admire, who has achieved great things.

Nominations may be made using the enclosed application.
Please include all the necessary supporting documentation.
For more information check out www.awam.org/awards.htm

If you have not done so already....Join AWAM now!

Complete the enclosed Membership Application.

Scholarships will be presented at the AWAM Awards Breakfast sponsored by Pratt & Whitney, to be held during the Women In Aviation Conference March 8 - 10, 2011, at the Grand Hilton Anatole in Dallas, TX.

While it is not mandatory to be present, it is an Amazing & Empowering Experience!
